Extra-ordinary SUMMER CONCERT JULIA
ORGEL SPONTANEOUS INTERNATIONAL VIENNA 2008
Mag. Dr. Rainer König-Hollerwöger

This intercultural interdenominational international organ concert will be given by the Viennese artist, scientist and researcher Mag. Dr. Rainer König-Hollerwöger in the Lutheran Church "Dorotheerkirche", Protestant parish A. B., Vienna - City Center. The event will be opened with a speech by Referend Dr. Ines Knoll.

On the one hand this extra-ordinary organ concert is dedicated to the vivid remembrance and praying for Julia Kühner from Pulkau/ Lower Austria and all the missing children/ adolescents and their worried families in all Europe and internationally.

It will set a further sign of life for missing Julia K. in Vienna. Julia disappeared without a trace on the 27 June 2006. She was sixteen, then. Julia has been missing for two years now. Supposed sightings of Julia were recorded in Vienna, but unfortunately this information did not lead to useful traces for further research so far.

On the other hand this concert is dedicated to the missing Jewish children and adolescent of the Nazi-era that have been tortured, maltreated and often murdered.

This event is an interdenominational event with delivered words of greetings by Dr. Heinz Fischer, Federal President of the Austrian Republic, and Dr. Ariel Muzicant, President of the Federal Association of Jewish Congregations in Austria. Speeches about their imprisonment in the concentration camps will be delivered by: Erika Bezdíčková, journalist, and the technician Michal Salomonovič, Historian Auschwitz Group Prague, Board of the Jewish Congregations, concerned with raising awareness and reconciliation.

Misses Bezdíčková is "Honorary President Southeast and Central Europe" and "Head of the advisory Council on international questions concerning Southeast and Central Europe and bridges of remembrance between the past and the present" of IPS-WIEN.
(www.ips-wien.at - the institute/ team)

As president of IPS-WIEN working on a two years research project concerning the Austrian-Czech border region, Germany and Prague financed by the EU, Dr. Rainer König-Hollerwöger launched the international initiative "IJ 06" for searching and finding Julia K. (More can be found under www.findetjulia.org and <http://orgel-spontan.ips-wien.at> et al.)

Last concert events launched:

2 July 2008	in the St. Paul's Church in Innsbruck/ Tyrol
12 May 2008, Whit Monday	in the St. George's Church in Horn/ Lower Austria
8 February 2008	in the Parish Church Gmunden, also for the welcoming of the Upper Austrian Major Regional Exposition 2008
5 January 2008	in the St Mary's Church in Enns/ Upper Austria
8 December 2007	in the Cathedral of Znojmo/ Czech Republic

On 28 October, at 6.30 p.m., the author, musician and painter Mag. Dr. Rainer König-Hollerwöger will present his „Europe Book“ to the public. This publication concerns his multilayered European pioneer work in border regions and also covers the situation of „being missing“.

Julias situation of "being missing" and the tragic situation of other missing children and adolescents in the present, past and future may through this series of cultural events raise the awareness of the situation of "being missing" and may foster human solitariness and human aid, traversing borders and building European, international bridges, in the contemplative atmosphere of churches and cathedrals. Rainer König-Hollerwöger will portray these different flows in his new oil painting.
