ORGEL SPONTAN INTERNATIONAL

St. Florian b. Linz, Görlitz, Brno, Znojmo, Wien, Freistadt, Telč...

for international and interconfessional cultural communication of countries and towns

ORGEL SPONTAN ČESKÝ KRUMLOV 1309-2009
700´ s anniversary of Český Krumlov

There are four inspirations for this organ recital:

1. The magical town Český Krumlov in the south of Bohemia
2. The Christian Yule and Advent with Mary, Jesus, Josef and the Angels
3. A young mother and her child who live in this town and have fallen into poverty and misery - in connection with the holy Agnes from Bohemia (1211-1282) and the caritative efforts of the Order of The Holy Cross of the Red Star, founded by her within the former Monastery of the Minoriten/ Český Krumlov
4. Julia Kühner from Pulkau/Lower Austria who is missing without a trace for more than three years.

The Viennese organist, pianist, composer, writer, painter, scientist, researcher and cultural philosopher Mag. Dr. Rainer König-Hollerwöger developed a deep relationship with the ancient town Český Krumlov with its unique castle beside the river Vltava. For him it represents an effigy of the secrets of heaven and earth. For the first time he will transform spontaneously his impressions of Český Krumlov into fluent organ music for several voices. The heavenly Angels resound within the magical melody of an ancient air of angels from Tyrol in the Austrian Alps. The whole church will be filled with the movement of the air of angels. This act is dedicated to the church of the former monastery of the Minoriten, the Order of the Holy Cross of the Red Star and the churches of Český Krumlov.

Then raises the music up to the castle of Český Krumlov. With the tone of trumpets and trombones resounds the medieval music, accompanied by the deep tones of the organ pedals. Snowflakes dance within thousand organ tones. The organ recital is dedicated cordially to Český Krumlov in connection with its 700´ s anniversary.

With the old Advent air: „Mary walked through a forest of thorns“ the wandering of the virgin mother Mary transforms into organ music. A young mother named Mary wanders in the streets of Český Krumlov where she lives, left alone in deep poverty fallen in misery. She carries her child in her arms. The holy Agnes from Bohemia (1211 - 1282) daughter of Ottokar I. Přemysl and Konstanze from Hungary founded the Order of the Holy Cross of the Red Star and a hospital in Praha to support the poor and the ill. This air is dedicated to her.

The ancient church air: „A ship will arrive loaded“ resounds. On the dark waves of the river Vltava a ship with the Christ Child arrives. The organist dedicates the medieval Christmas air to international peace and the dialog between cultures and religions.

The worldwide known Christmas air „Holy Night, Silent Night“ dips Český Krumlov in the infinite starlight of Christmas. Within it glows the hope to find missing children, juveniles and Julia Kühner missing without a trace for three years.

The Viennese artist plays on the oldest church organ from Český Krumlov from the years 1679-82 with two small manuals, 22 sound registers and pedals. The baroque instrument with Renaissance sounds is on the choir behind the altar in the mystic church space.
