

MESSAGE FOR THE PRESS

EU – OPENING CONFERENCE in Znojmo, Czech Republic, March 17th 2006

in Znojemska Beseda, Masarykovo náměstí 22, ZNOJMO with uniting sound of countries and cultures at St. Nicholas Church in the evening on Friday, 17th of March 2006, beginning at 9:30 according to the current EU – commission AGIS 2005 “Border crossing working together with offices on place and social work in the fields of Prostitution Trade of woman and sexual abuse of children in context of PREVENTION, RESEARCH, SENSIBILISATION, TRAINING AND NETWORK“, with financial support of JUSTICE, SECURITY AND PEACE, EU – BRÜSSEL, from the international, interdisciplinary INSTITUTE FOR PSYCHO – SOCIAL QUESTIONS for research, working up and prevention of sexual abuse of children (IPSex)Vienna/ Austria.

On behalf of justice, security and place, financial support EU – project 2005 “Border crossing working together with offices on place and social work in the fields of FORCED PROSTITUTION OF WOMAN, TRADE OF WOMAN AND SEXUAL ABUSE OF CHILDREN IN CONTEXT OF PREVENTION, RESEARCH, SENSIBILISATION, TRAINING AND NETWORK“ – financial support by Justice, Security and Peace/ EU – Brüssel, in the course of the official opening of the EU – Office from IPSex/ Vienna international with its President Mag. Dr. Rainer König-Hollerwöger, there takes place the EU – opening conference in Znojmo in the historical hall of Znojemska Beseda, to which the Mayor of Znojmo Engineer Mr. Pavel Balek is inviting to.

There will also be representatives of European prominent persons at the EU – opening conference. This EU – Project “AGIS 2005“ is about inter European questions of justice, security and peace, concerning any form of sexual abuse of children, the forced prostitution of woman and trade of children and women. The EU – project “AGIS 2005“ aims to put a stop to sexual abuse of children and adolescence as well as forced prostitution of woman based on violence and the trade of woman and children in the German-Czech and Austrian-Czech border regions as well as in Prag by help of actions of sensibilisation and training for the protection of victims by transnational effective social work and work of research and to develop European concepts of prevention against it, that also will be made use of in other EU – border regions.

In this region it should become a “Best-practise – example“ for other EU – border regions.

Thereby the way for a Europe of human dialogs will be stepped over.

There will take place in the Austrian, Czech and German border region training courses for Police, Social and Youth Welfare Offices, institutions of justice, hospitals, psychiatries, schools, nursery schools, NGO’s, religious institutions like Caritas and many others.

In the evening there will be as a uniting sound of concerties and cultures at the important Church of St. Nicholas the international concert uniting the past, present and future, social affairs, culture and economy.

“ORGAN SPONTANEOUS 2005/06 ZNOJMO“

The Press, regional governments with police, social – and youth welfare offices, institutions of justice, hospitals, psychiatries schools, nursery schools, NGO’s, religious institutions, from the Czech Republic, Austria, Germany and Europe international invited.

The EU – opening conference and the international concert at the Church of St. Nicholas will be done continually in Czech and German language, when necessary in English language, too.

Vienna – Prag – Znojmo, February, 17th 2006

Translated by Renate Windischhofer