ORGEL SPONTAN PRAHA JULIA 2010

Mag. Dr. Rainer KÖNIG-HOLLERWÖGER

(Vienna - Znojmo - Prague)

Concert for organ from the series of concerts

ORGEL SPONTAN INTERNATIONAL

St. Florian bei Linz, Görlitz, Brno, Znojmo, Wien, Freistadt, Telč, Český Krumlov...

for international, interconfessional and cultural communication of countries

Four sources of inspiration lead to this series of concerts:

- 1) The "Canticle of the Sun" was written by Saint Francis of Assisi (1181/82-1226), the founder of the Franciscan Order and Christian mystic. Cosmos, nature, the sick and the suffering people and the Creator are praised in his poem.
- 2) The City of Prague, its medieval history and the river Vltava sounding in the organ music.
- 3) The spontaneous piece of music for organ "Prelude Tenebris et FUGA MORTA" develops from the world-famous poetry "Deathfugue" by Paul Celan. Connected to it is the focus on Jewish culture, the Jewish Community of Prague, the survivors of the concentration camps and the humans who were killed there, is connected to the music.
- 4) Johann Sebastian Bach's next to last composition "The Art of Fugue" was the source of inspiration to the "Metamorphoses of the Art of Fugue" and the "PRAELUDIUM ET FUGA SPONTAN B-A-C-H".

Johann Sebastian Bach used the letters of his name B-A-C-H as the theme to his polyphonic music in his unfinished composition "The Art of Fugue". According to Ludwig van Beethoven Bach should have been called "Meer", meaning "sea" in German, instead of "Bach", meaning "little river". It focuses on the personality and the individual human being. The memory of the missing Julia Kühner and all the missing children and young adolescents shall be brought to our attention. Julia Kühner is a young Austrian woman, who has been missing since June 27th, 2006 from Pulkau/Lower Austria.
